

Decluttering is not a one-time event. Living clutter free is a lifestyle choice - meaning it's done on purpose. It's one thing to declutter your home, but is doing this one thing really enough? We spend a lot of time and energy in putting forth this step which is truly the first step and is crucial. But clutter exists in many areas of our lives. To actually say we are living a clutter free life we must declutter all areas of our lives, not just our home. We must also declutter our finances and minds and stop the destructive behavior that is causing us to lose control in these areas. If we are serious about decluttering, we need to start asking ourselves some tough questions. This may mean learning to live with less so we can focus on those things which are truly important to us. Asking ourselves do I actually have to have the latest and greatest gadget. Adopting a minimalist posture at times can be appropriate. Declutter and Live the Clutter Free Life addresses many areas of our life, not just our homes. Many of us have a hard time letting go of our possessions. Some of us are exhibiting signs of hoarding. Are you one that is saving things thinking you will need them later and ---- later never comes? If you see yourself in any of the above, this book is for you. This book offers practical tips and suggestions to help you declutter your home and finances and curb the addictions that may be at the root of it all.
