

Mom Always Said II

I want to give thanks to the many, many people who inspired me to publish my second Mom Always Said book. ...both my friends and family who encouraged me to continue sharing my thoughts and experiences... as well as those who were not so encouraging. (When you add fuel to the fire, it burns brighter, you know!) Inspiration comes from unexpected sources sometimes. Its not always the people who cheer us on in life that motivate us to move forward. In fact, sometimes its just the opposite. Thanks to all of those people whove given me so much to write about! The nameless, faceless characters in my journals are REAL... not just in MY life, but in ALL of our lives. We all face people on a daily basis that tempt us to walk away from it all, to throw in the towel, to quit while were ahead, ...basically, cause us to doubt our own possibilities. Dont ever give up doing what you love. The question with any job in life is this: If you didnt get PAID to do what youre doing for a living, would you keep on doing it? If the answer to that question is yes, then by all means, youre in great shape - dont stop doing what you love. If youre not getting paid to do what you love (or not getting paid enough yet), you may have to work another job to pay the bills! ...but dont ever give up doing what you love ...keep painting, singing, dancing, acting, writing, etc.. Opportunities dont present themselves to those who DREAM about doing something someday. They come to those who are already DOING what they dream about. I dream my paintings then I paint my dreams.
