

In the Grand Scheme of Things (The Kim & Kelly Mystery Series Book 5)

When Kim and Kelly attend a sleep over party no one thought theyd be sneaking over to an abandoned psychiatric hospital late at night. The hospital is made up of many different run-down and spooky looking buildings, all of which have a story to tell of the horrible experiments that used to go on there years ago. Ghosts stories are told during the sleep over party and a dare is cast amongst the guests. Just for kicks the girls sneak over to the abandoned buildings to snoop around. While the other girls are running around and having fun, Kelly and Kim discover footprints, fresh paint, car keys and many other curious items. The fun quickly turns to terror as the girls are chased out by mysterious sounds throughout the building. Robberies at nearby art galleries and odd finding in the insane asylum have the girls curiosity running wild. Using teamwork and perseverance, the young super sleuths are determined to get to the bottom of the strange happenings going on in the abandoned buildings and solve a most curious crime.
